BACKGROUND: RecruitMilitary is unique among recruiting firms in that we focus solely on matching up military veterans and their spouses with employers across the world. RecruitMilitary believes that former military personnel and military spouses represent the greatest pool of quality talent this country has to offer.

For military veterans, including enlisted transitioning military personnel, as well as senior officers and junior military officers; RecruitMilitary offers free comprehensive job search and career transition services. RecruitMilitary connects these individuals with thousands of employers seeking quality candidates with the unique and well-rounded skill sets a military background provides. RecruitMilitary assists candidates with information about resumes, networking, and interviewing tips in their Career Center. RecruitMilitary also provides veteran job fairs throughout the country - in fact; they are the largest producer of military career fairs in the country.
